The Prevention Specialist Certification Board of Washington (PSCBW) is sponsoring this comprehensive Substance Abuse Prevention Specialist Training (SAPST), a national curriculum developed by the federal Center for Substance Abuse Prevention (CSAP).

The training is free of charge and is supported by a grant from the Washington State Department of Social & Health Services/ Division of Behavioral Health and Recovery.

The training will incorporate lecture and experiential learning on various topics including:

- Prevention in its Historic Context
- Research and Planning
- Evaluation
- Dimensions of Diversity and Cultural Issues
- Media (Media Advocacy, Media Literacy and Social Marketing)
- Human Development and Prevention

Lead Trainers:

Bridgette Agpaoa Ryder, MA, CDP, CPP, ICPS, Family Counselor and Case Manager of the Family Program at Valley General Hospital. She is an instructor at Seattle Central Community College (SCCC), Health and Human Services Program. She has completed the SAPST and delivered the curriculum in 2009 with staff from CSAP's Western Center for the Application of Prevention Technologies.

Kim Beeson, MSW, Prevention Center Director, Puget Sound Educational Service District (PSESD) Learning, Teaching, and Family Support Department, has completed the SAPST and Substance Abuse Prevention Training of Trainers, and delivered the curriculum to school staff.

Certificate of Completion:

Participants are required to attend all four days of the training. Upon completion of the training, participants will be awarded a certificate for a total of 30 hours. The PSCBW has approved hours from SAPST to be used toward the initial application for a Certified Prevention Professional (CPP) credential. Hours may also be used to fulfill CPP continuing education requirements.
